Volume 1, Issue 5, January 2010

Work has picked up for us. We have been busy filling orders and keeping inventory on the shelf. Due to the increase in orders we have purchased a new machine. This will allow us to run our Micro tools on one machine while keeping the other machine freed up to due larger size tools. This new CNC Cutter Grinder, will help keep up with our growing demand for custom size and length micro end mills. The machine is scheduled to be delivered early in January. With set-up and training in the middle of the month we hope to be in production by the end of January. Please let us know if we can be of help making any specialty 1/8" shank micro end mills. We also have added more staff. We have hired another full-time employee and a part time employee to help keep up with tool orders. Our regrind service has taken off as well. We have added another shift to help keep up with regrinds. Regrinds our what helped found this company and we continue to keep this as and important part of our tooling services.

Monthly Specials

Watch for our upcoming Monthly Specials. Every month we have one of our stock tools on sale. Listed below are the tools we will have on sale for the next 2 months.

3 Flute End Mills for Aluminum

We have our 1st line of 3 Flute End Mills on the shelf and available for delivery. So far, the early tests coming back from our customers have been very favorable. We are stocking them with and without ZRN coating. The sizes available are listed on our website.

He is a very fast drinker

A man goes into a bar and seats himself on a stool. The bartender looks at him and says, "What'll it be buddy?"

The man says, "Set me up with seven whiskey shots and make them doubles." The bartender does this and watches the man slug one down, then the next, then the next, and so on till all seven are gone almost as quickly as they were served. Staring in disbelief, the bartender asks why he's doing all this drinking.

"You'd drink them this fast too if you had what I have."

The bartender hastily asks, "What do you have pal?"

The man quickly replies, " I have a dollar."

Check out our newly updated website with online ordering available

We have recently updated our website. Take a look and see the new format along with an updated list of tools we have in stock. We also have updated pricing for all the tools we carry. We still have our specials page with our monthly stock tool we have on sale. New to the Website is an online ordering option we have added and also our bargain cave. The Bargain Cave will have over stock tools at a discounted price. The tools, which are different Form Tools, Mold Tools, End Mills, and Reamers just to mention a few, are over stock and have been discontinued by the original customer. Take a look and see if there is something that might fit your application. Just click on the logo below to take a look at the updated Website.

Church for this Drunk!!

A man sobering up from the night before is sitting through the Sunday sermon, finding it long and boring. Still feeling hung over and tired, he finally nods off.

The priest has been watching him all along, noticing his apparent hangover and is disgusted. At the end of the sermon, the preacher decides to make an example of him.

He says to his congregation, "All those wishing to have a place in heaven, please stand."

The whole room stands up except, of course, the sleeping man.

Then the preacher says even more loudly, "And he who would like to find a place in hell please STAND UP!"

The weary man catching only the last part groggily stands up, only to find that he's the only one standing.

Confused and embarrassed he says, "I don't know what we're voting on here, Father, but it sure seems like you and me are the only ones standing for it!"
